

FY 2017, 1st Quarter Business Forecast Questions and Responses

Updated 12/22/16

Background

USAID's Business Forecast is published each quarter throughout the fiscal year. The Agency's Business Forecast is an informational resource on potential funding and partnership opportunities at USAID. It is an advanced look at grants, contracts, and cooperative agreements that USAID is in the process of developing and plans to issue in the coming year. Two separate Forecasts are developed each quarter – one for USAID Missions overseas and one for USAID in Washington, DC. Organizations interested in working with USAID can use this tool to plan for proposal or application submissions.

General Business Forecast Questions

1. Live Feed: USAID has mentioned in several recent meetings that it will be transitioning to a live forecast system. Could USAID please provide more information on how this new system will work

USAID Response: The live Business Forecast will be available on USAID's public website at www.usaid.gov/business-forecast and will feature searchable fields and pull-down menus. Once it goes live, it will include all of our USAID's operating unit in Washington and all Missions in the field. Partners will no longer need to wait for the next quarter to receive updates to the forecast. Users will be able to search by title, description, location, operating unit, sector, NAICS code, release date, or by entering specific terms. Users will still be able to download a full version of the Business Forecast in Excel format. We look forward to making this improvement to improve timeliness of updates and appreciate any feedback you may have as we implement this.

2. Reliability of the Forecast: I started tracking opportunities through the business forecast of the 12 opportunities I identified and tracked not one of them was released when they said it would be. Is there a reason that there is such a variance between the forecast and what is released?

USAID Response: Forecasts can change given new circumstances arising in a country or as planning on an activity progresses. With an ever-changing operating environment, it is important to understand that the Forecast is just that, a forecast. By moving to the new live feed forecast system it will make information more timely and accurate.

3. Small Business: Why are there so few Small Business Set asides?

USAID Response: Often the Agency cannot determine if a requirement will be a full or partial small business set aside until market research is conducted (refer to the Federal Acquisition Regulations Subpart 19.501c). In many cases the small business set aside status reads "TBD or N/A" until the research is completed. You may also note that the Award/Action Type may indicate "TBD". In some cases market research may be needed to determine if the award will be issued as one contract or an Indefinite Delivery-Indefinite Quantity (IDIQ) type contract. It is important that the small business community respond to Source Sought Notices, Requests for Information, and other Agency inquiries that are used to gauge industry capabilities and intent. In cases of re-competing an existing award that was awarded to a small business, the Agency may post the re-compete as a set aside without conducting market research.

4. Small Business: What determines if an RFP is a Partial or a Total Set Small Business Set Aside?

USAID Response: First, market research must be conducted to establish a reasonable expectation that two or more responsible small business concerns that are competitive in terms of market prices, quality, and delivery will submit an offer in response to the Request for Proposal (RFP). Secondly, factors such as complexity of the work, period of performance, place of performance, etc., may be used to gauge the feasibility of issuing a total or partial small business set aside. If USAID is unable to issue a total small business set aside, we will consider a partial set-aside. For a partial set-aside, we will identify a phase or segment of the requirement that is severable and can stand alone.

5. Small Business: Do you keep a database of big companies intending to bid so we can reach out for partnering opportunities?

USAID Response: USAID does not have a means to determine which firms will bid and accordingly does not maintain such a list. The Agency recognizes the importance of developing partnerships. It is important in gaining experience, exposure and past performance. For this reason, we post the Agency's Indefinite Delivery, Indefinite Quantity (IDIQ) contract holders (<https://www.usaid.gov/work-usaid/resources-for-partners/usaids-partners>) to provide all interested parties with information about our current partners, small and large. Additional resources to identify potential partners are USA Spending.Gov and the Federal Procurement Data System (FPDS) websites.

6. Transition of Administrations: What impact do you anticipate the new administration's transition will have on existing or proposed procurements?

USAID Response: USAID's programs around the world will continue as they did yesterday. We are still working for President Obama and his administration. President Obama is in office until January 20, 2017. Until then, it wouldn't be appropriate to speculate on the policy initiatives of the next administration.

7. Dates on the Forecast: Some solicitation dates are later than quarter 1 2017. Will USAID now be including in its forecasts solicitations beyond each quarter into the entire fiscal year?

USAID Response: USAID attempts to list upcoming opportunities at the earliest point possible to allow for potential partners to plan accordingly. To the extent that an opportunity is known and there is enough information to forecast, we will continue to post actions as early as possible for the balance of the Fiscal Year.

8. Timing of Solicitations: Would missions consider not releasing solicitations in the two weeks prior to the December holidays? Since we partner with local organizations, they are usually on leave for the second half of December into early January and it is difficult to finalize subcontracting agreements with them.

USAID Response: A note has been sent to Agency A&A staff encouraging them to hold on issuing any new solicitations during this time period. Additionally, staff have been encouraged, where possible, to extend any solicitations so that they do not close during the holiday time period. If there are urgent or critical solicitations we have encouraged our staff to move forward as planned.

9. Status of Action Column: Can USAID please explain the meaning of the descriptions in the Status of Action Column (activity approval, finalizing SOW, etc.)?

USAID Response: The status of action was inadvertently published in the latest Forecast. This column is used for internal tracking and planning purposes only and will not be included on future iterations of the Forecast. We apologize for any confusion. For your understanding, Finalizing Scope of Work, Activity Approval, Presolicitation/AARAD, Contract Review Board, etc. are internal clearances and steps required depending upon the threshold amount before the solicitation is released.

10. Removal of Incumbent from Mission Forecast: Did USAID intentionally remove the “Incumbent” column from the new Mission Forecast design? We found this column to be useful.

USAID Response: It’s titled as “Implementing Partner” - in the future, this column will be “Incumbent” to avoid further confusion.

11. Implementing Partner Column: A majority of the columns for Implementing Partner (Column H) are marked TBD though many have an incumbent in place. Would USAID please explain, or make the relevant changes by providing the name of the specific incumbent?

USAID Response: It’s titled as “Implementing Partner” (this has been interpreted as our future partner and hence, TBD has been included in the field). In the future, this column will be “Incumbent” to avoid further confusion and will hopefully reduce “TBD” as the response.

12. Presolicitation Dates: Would USAID please consider adding another column on “RFI/APS/SOW Release Date”? This would help potential partners to plan accordingly.

USAID Response: We appreciate this suggestion. At this point, we currently are not planning on adding this information to the Forecast. However, we will keep this in mind for the future.

13. Hyperlinks to Solicitations: To be more transparent and helpful for its implementing partners, is it possible for USAID to hyperlink published materials, such as solicitations posted on Federal Business Opportunities and publicly provide the factoring documentation that supports what type of instrument is chosen – all within the Business Forecast?

USAID Response: We appreciate this suggestion. At this point, we currently are not planning on adding hyperlinks in the Forecast. However, we will keep this in mind for the future. The solicitation number provided is easily searchable on the FBO or Grants.gov sites.

With regards to the selection of instrument determination, the Agency does not publish its internal documents and will not post this information on the Forecast. If there are specific questions about the selection of instrument, we encourage partners to contact the POC listed and/or the Ombudsman.

14. Cancellation of Awards: As some awards are listed as cancelled, is USAID now noting awards that are cancelled from all forecasts or just the prior forecast? Is USAID noting all delistings – not just for the ones cancelled, such as those filled by other means?

USAID Response: Presently, cancelled awards are those that were listed on the previous forecast and no longer available for the future forecast.

Washington Business Forecast Questions

1. Africa: Does USAID anticipate releasing opportunities using the TASC4 Africa mechanism? If so, will those opportunities be listed on the procurement forecast in advance of their release?

USAID Response: Washington does not intend to use this mechanism in this FY. It is possible Missions will use the mechanism and if so, this will be shared on the subsequent Business Forecast.

2. BFS: Could USAID please provide an update on the anticipated release date and any additional information related to the scope for the Inclusive Finance Activity as it was listed on the Washington Business Forecast released on November 18, 2016, yet was then removed from the update released on November 29, 2016? Can USAID please provide more details on the Inclusive Finance Activity from the Bureau for Food Security?

USAID Response: Currently, the Inclusive Finance Activity is the early planning stages, and not enough information is known at this time to provide further details. The ISF activity was mistakenly removed from the Business Forecast. The ISF activity is listed on the latest Business Forecast as “Inclusive Finance Activity” (updated December 2, 2016).

3. BFS: Could USAID please provide an update on the anticipated release date and any additional information related to the scope for the Technology and Commercialization Partnerships procurement as it was listed on the Washington Business Forecast released on November 18, 2016, yet was then removed from the update released on November 29, 2016?

USAID Response: The Technology and Commercialization Partnerships procurement is in the early planning stages. A SOW or Program Description is still being written, and the activity has not yet been approved through BFS management.

4. BFS: Are there priority countries for the USAID/BFS New NARS Strengthening Project?

USAID Response: The focus countries being considered are Guinea, Mozambique, Ghana, and the South African Regional countries.

5. DCHA: Can USAID include Food for Peace opportunities in upcoming versions of the forecast?

USAID Response: As Food for Peace opportunities arise, the actions will be included in the forecast as appropriate.

6. DCHA: SWIFT 5 is not yet on the USAID forecast but we understand it is likely to be released in mid 2017. Can USAID please clarify the status of this IDIQ?

USAID Response: DCHA and M/OAA are beginning initial conversations on a possible SWIFT V IDIQ. A possible release date is late in the calendar year of 2017.

7. DCHA: Regarding the activity “EISM Empowerment and Inclusions Support Services Mechanism,” in the previous quarter Q&A USAID stated: “EISM is intended to provide overall management services for the project, such as issuing requests for proposals, choosing implementing partners, and providing technical guidance to implementers. In select cases it may provide direct support to missions.”

- a. Could USAID clarify, what types of technical guidance for implementers will be expected under this mechanism?

USAID Response: Technical guidance, particularly for first time recipients of USAID funding, will both help strengthen organizational capacities of grantees, as well as improve recipient skills in managing, implementing, and monitoring sub-awards. This may include support in areas such as organizational governance and management; award administration, financial management, and budgeting; and/or promote programming on inclusive practices and approaches to operationalize USAID strategies and requirements in areas such as disability; gender; ethnic, religious, and linguistic minority rights; and protection of LGBTI rights.

- b. Is this a follow-on to an existing project? What is the name of the predecessor project?

USAID Response: This is not a follow-on agreement. However, EISM is similar in nature to an existing Associate Agreement with World Learning, “Special Programs to Address the Needs of Survivors,” under the Global Health Bureau’s Leader, “Grant Solicitation and Management.”

- c. Partners are curious about the actual granting mechanism, as it says Cooperative Agreement but reads like an LWA or IQC. Will there be a pre-solicitation or is USAID planning to release the full solicitation in January?

USAID Response: No, there will not be a pre-solicitation. The full solicitation, which will be released in early 2017, will serve as an umbrella mechanism under which discrete sub-awards will be solicited, awarded and managed.

- d. Could USAID clarify what types of vulnerable and marginalized populations will be targeted by EISM?

USAID Response: The populations targeted by EISM are: persons with disabilities, including civilians affected by war and conflict; survivors of torture and trauma; and highly vulnerable children living in adverse circumstances.

- e. Does USAID have defined target geographies for EISM implementation?

USAID Response: It is expected that the recipient of EISM will have the capacity to work globally, however specific technical areas (see h) may have defined target geographies.

- f. Could USAID provide additional information regarding the scope for EISM?

USAID Response: EISM will serve as an umbrella mechanism that will assist USAID’s Empowerment and Inclusion (EI) Division to solicit, award, and manage targeted projects that will promote the rights and improve the wellbeing of vulnerable and marginalized populations; expand access by these populations to opportunities that support their full participation in society; and reinforce the capacities of communities, NGOs, and governments to provide services to these populations. By enabling EI to support a wide range of assistance awards, the EISM mechanism will not only help advance EI Division strategic and technical priorities, but will contribute to USAID's overall development mandate to accelerate human progress, strengthen resilient societies, and promote human rights in developing countries.

EISM will primarily support programming under USAID's Empowerment and Inclusion (EI) Division which is structured by and responsive to five congressionally mandated initiatives: the Leahy War Victims Fund, the Wheelchair Program; the Disability Fund; the Victims of Torture fund; and the Displaced Children and Orphans Fund, which supports priorities outlined in the U.S. Government Action Plan for Children in Adversity (APCA). The Division is also guided by international frameworks and guidelines, including the United Nations Convention of the Rights of Persons with Disabilities; the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child; and the World Health Organization's Inter-Agency Standing Committee's Guidelines for Mental Health and Psychosocial support, among others.

- g. EISM was listed with a funding range of $50M-70M per the July 2016 forecast. The November 2016 forecast now lists the range as $50M-99M. Could USAID confirm that the revised range is correct?

USAID Response: The funding range is $60 to $73 million.

- 8. DCHA: USAID released a Request for Information in July 2016 regarding the procurement and transport of non-food items for humanitarian assistance in Syria. Does USAID anticipate moving forward with this opportunity? If so, when is it expected to be released?

USAID Response: USAID does not intend on moving forward with this opportunity.

- 9. DCHA: What are the countries that will be included in the FY17 Global Reconciliation Fund opportunity?

USAID Response: USAID is in the process of identifying countries for inclusion in the FY17 Global Reconciliation Fund opportunity. USAID anticipates issuing a "pre-solicitation" notice with the list of countries on Grants.gov in advance of the release of the full funding opportunity announcement.

- 10. DCHA: The DRG Center's RFP#SOL-OAA-16-000175 Analytical Services IV has not been released nor was it listed in the FY 17 forecast. Is that procurement still scheduled to be released? And if so can you tell us when? Further, are there any anticipated changes in scope, size or set-aside status? Will there be any significant changes from the Analytical Services IV presolicitation? And are there any anticipated changes to the to Analytical Services IV RFTOP?

USAID Response: The DRG Center's RFP # SOL-OAA-16-000175 Analytical Services IV was not listed in the FY 17 forecast because of a technical glitch that prevented it from being pulled from the Agency A&A Plan when the report was initially pulled. The technical glitch has been fixed and the answers to the other questions should be showing on the corrected forecast.

- 11. DCHA: Active Communities – Effective States (ACES) has been delayed in its release since its original announcement as DRAGON in July 2014
- a. Will USAID consider issuing another RFI to provided information on expected changes to the SOW?

USAID Response: At this time, USAID is not considering issuing another RFI.

- b. Does USAID anticipate releasing a draft SOW document and/or pre-solicitation in advance of the RFP release now forecasted to be April 3, 2017?

USAID Response: USAID expects to issue a pre-solicitation notice on FedBizOpps in advance of issuing the full solicitation. USAID will consider including the draft SOW as part of the pre-solicitation notice.

- c. Will there be an SB set aside?

USAID Response: ACES is still anticipated to be a multiple-award procurement with one or more awards reserved for small businesses. ACES is not expected to be a total or partial small business set-aside. The small business set-aside field on the FY17 Q1 Business Forecast has been corrected from "TBD" to "Small Business Reserve."

- d. When does USAID anticipate ACES to be released?

USAID Response: The anticipated solicitation release date for ACES is an estimate and may be adjusted as necessitated by internal processes and requirements.

- 12. DCHA: Support that Augments Rapid Transition (START) -- The IDIQ is set to expire in 2017 but does not appear on the forecast. Can you please clarify if the vehicle will be recompeted?

USAID Response: DCHA and M/OAA are developing possible options to replace this IDIQ, including utilizing the GSA schedule.

- 13. DCHA: Program Development Quickly (PDQ III) -- The IDIQ is set to expire in 2017 but does not appear on the forecast. Can you please clarify if the vehicle will be recompeted?

USAID Response: DCHA and OAA are developing possible options to replace this IDIQ, including utilizing the GSA schedule.

- 14. E3: Could USAID please confirm if it intends to re-bid the REPLACE IDIQ?

USAID Response: No information is available at this time as to whether the REPLACE IDIQ will be recompeted.

- 15. E3: Utility Partnership Program -- Can we assume the planning strategy is to roll out these forecasted opportunities? With this in mind, will this strategy support be contracted or will this be part of the initial response one the opportunity is released? Also can will there be consideration to set aside a portion of this opportunity for a SDVOSB firm capable of delivering on these initiatives?

USAID Response: The requirements for this action have yet to be finalized. No additional information is available.

16. E3: In June 2016, USAID issued a request for qualifications and capability statements for “Climate Risk Management” (RFQ 1097758 / SOL-OAA-16-000146). This project was not listed in the most recent Washington Business Forecast. Does USAID plan to solicit a request for proposals for this project and if so, could USAID please indicate an anticipated release date?

USAID Response: The requirements and approvals for this action should be finalized in the coming days and USAID anticipates a solicitation to be released prior to the end of the month.

17. E3: Does USAID intend to issue a successor IDIQ to FORECAST II? The IDIQ is set to expire in 2017 but does not appear on the forecast. Can you please clarify if the vehicle will be re-competed?

USAID Response: No information is available at this time as to whether a successor IDIQ to FORECAST II will be issued.

18. E3: A new five-year Climate Integration Facility opportunity was posted on USAID/Washington’s July forecast. Release of two RFQs followed noting that release of the procurement was scheduled for before the end of the calendar year. The latest forecast no longer lists this opportunity. Could USAID please clarify the status of this procurement?

USAID Response: The requirements and approvals for this action should be finalized in the coming days and USAID anticipates a solicitation to be released prior to the end of the month.

19. E3: Participant Training and Exchange Data System -- Can you expound on the specific requirements for this project? What are the labor categories for this opportunity? Can you please advise of the areas of emphasis training?

USAID Response: The requirements are still in development . An RFI was issued to Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business holders of GSA’s Schedule IT 70 on November 18, 2017. No additional information is available at this time

20. E3: Clean Energy II IDIQ - Please provide more detail on the specifics of this opportunity.
- a. Is this follow-on award in addition to the current critical and non-critical priority contracts, or is it a rebid/replacement of one or both of those?
 - b. Does USAID expect to re-bid both the CPC and non-CPC Clean Energy IDIQ or will it combine them into a single vehicle?
 - c. Could USAID please confirm whether it will extend the Clean Energy IDIQ given that a number of the planned RFTOPs seem to have a period of performance of five years, which would exceed the IDIQ TO performance period?
 - d. Is it possible to under the SDVOSB or WOSB?

USAID Response: This is a follow-on award to Clean Energy I IDIQ, which will expire in December 2017. The requirements to Clean Energy II IDIQ are in the early stages of development so answers to a-d cannot be provided at this time.

21. E3: Scaling Up Renewable Energy Under Clean Energy -- Can we assume the planning strategy is to roll out these forecasted opportunities? With this in mind, will this strategy support be contracted or will this be part of the initial response once the opportunity is released? Also can will there be consideration to set aside a portion of this opportunity for a SDVOSB firm(s) capable of delivering on these initiatives with product and services?

USAID Response: The requirements for this action have yet to be finalized. No additional information is available.

22. E3: Could USAID please clarify whether the “New LEAP III (Learning, Evaluation and Analysis Project)” will be a free and open solicitation? Will it be a single award small business set-aside?

USAID Response: The requirements for this action have yet to be finalized. No additional information is available.

23. E3: The latest Washington Forecast states that the solicitation for the PFM II IDIQ was to be issued on Nov. 21.
- a. When does USAID expect to issue the RFP for this IDIQ? Could USAID please provide an updated release date?
 - b. It also appears that there are two nearly identical listings for this opportunity, however one says the IDIQ will last five years, while the other says it will last seven years. Could USAID please clarify on the IDIQ period of performance?

USAID Response: The requirements for the PFM II IDIQ are still in development. USAID expects the PFM II IDIQ to be issued in early 2017. LPFM III is a Task Order which will be awarded along with the PFM II IDIQ. Both the IDIQ and the TO will have a 5-year period of performance.

24. E3: The latest Washington Forecast includes an opportunity called LPFM III IDIQ. Is this a new opportunity, separate from the PFM II IDIQ opportunity? Or does USAID anticipate issuing LPFM III IDIQ as a task order under PFM IDIQ? If it is a task order, will it be awarded simultaneously with the new PFM II IDIQ? Can you also confirm the range for the estimated total cost of the project? What is the difference between the New PFM II IDIQ Public Financial Management follow on and the New LPFM III IDIQ (Leadership in Public Financial Management follow on)?

USAID Response: The requirements for the PFM IDIQ are still in development. USAID expects the PFM II IDIQ to be issued in early 2017. LPFM III is a Task Order, which will be awarded along with the PFM II IDIQ. No additional information is available at this time.

25. E3: TIDE -- Transforming Implementation through Improved Data and Evidence Practice
- a. Is there an incumbent project to the Transforming Implementation through Improved Data and Evidence Practice issued by E3?
 - b. What is the anticipated contract mechanism for Transforming Implementation through improved, Data and Evidence Practice (TIDE)?
 - c. Since the dollar value for this is below $25m and it is focused on data, would you consider procuring it as a total small business set aside?
 - d. Does USAID anticipate to release a pre-solicitation for TIDE?
 - e. Is TIDE going to be global or country/region specific?
 - f. Could USAID please provide more information on the anticipated scope of work?

- g. Does USAID anticipate releasing an RFI?

USAID Response: The requirements for the TIDE are still in development. No additional information is available at this time.

26. E3: Are there any other WADI IDIQ task orders in the current pipeline of procurement opportunities?

USAID Response: There is no information available regarding potential Washington-based WADI task order procurements. Mission opportunities through this task order will be included on future Forecasts.

27. E3/Global Health: There seem to be fewer opportunities currently that are stand-alone WASH programs. Is this because USAID is moving towards more integrated programming or is this a random occurrence and thus not a trend?

USAID Response: There are not fewer WASH opportunities nor fewer stand-alone WASH activities. In fact the opposite is true. As the water directive has risen and the agency has improved our strategic approach to WASH, the number of stand-alone WASH activities has risen dramatically, especially in our priority countries.

28. Global Development Lab: Promoting Excellence in Private Sector Engagement (PEPSE) Procure communication services -- Can you please provide a timeline for when these opportunities will require a formal response?

USAID Response: The U.S. Global Development Lab's Center for Transformational Partners is finalizing the revised Statement of Work from the effort that was cancelled in FY2016. There are two concentrations for the effort: Functional Support and Technical-Partner Engagement. The anticipated solicitation release date will be no later than January 2017 with anticipated award by June 2017. This requirement will still be a total small business set-aside.

29. Global Health: Breakthrough Action SBCC and Breakthrough Research Implementation SBCC --
a. Could USAID please provide more information about these activities in the forecast?

USAID Response: Please note that for Breakthrough-ACTION and Breakthrough-RESEARCH, all references to "SBCC" (Social and Behavior Change Communication) in the questions, should be "SBC" (Social and Behavior Change).

Breakthrough-ACTION will build upon current USAID investment in SBC research and programming, including both global and bilateral projects, to simultaneously guide new learning and drive broader application of proven practices and tools in SBC. The project will fulfill a global leadership function that is needed within SBC, working through a number of new and existing platforms to create opportunities for technical agenda-setting, learning, and collaboration; designing and implementing innovative and strategic SBC programs; and promoting agreed-upon priorities through its own programs and knowledge management efforts.

Breakthrough-RESEARCH will address a clear need for increased study of SBC interventions, with a focus on producing, packaging, and disseminating research that may be utilized by SBC implementers in their work. In addition to conducting and disseminating the social science research that has traditionally been the mainstay of USAID's investments in SBC, Breakthrough-RESEARCH may also develop, test, or disseminate innovative or under-utilized research, monitoring, and evaluation approaches for SBC conducted by others that support tactical, real-time application of data in programmatic decision-making.

- b. Is it a follow-on to a current project?

USAID Response: Activities under both Breakthrough-ACTION and Breakthrough-RESEARCH are follow-on activities to a current project.

- c. Can you clarify if the main focus is on service delivery or does it also include health systems strengthening?

USAID Response: The main focus of both Breakthrough programs is technical leadership for social and behavior change programming. There may be linkages to health systems and service delivery, but that is not the focus.

- d. Can you please clarify if SBCC is across all three verticals, or does it also include health systems strengthening, commodity procurements, and clinical service delivery?

USAID Response: Breakthrough-ACTION's and Breakthrough-RESEARCH's social and behavior change work will be primarily focused on health, but the program may address social and behavior change needs in other sectors such as agriculture and nutrition. The program will not include a focus on health systems strengthening, commodity procurement or clinical service delivery.

- e. Can USAID confirm that the release date is 12/1/16? If not, can USAID please provide a more realistic timeframe.

USAID Response: Due to unforeseen delays, the expected release date of both solicitations is now early January 2017.

- f. Can USAID please provide greater detail on the contractual vehicle it intends to use for these two procurements?

USAID Response: Final internal approvals have not been completed. Unfortunately, the type of mechanism cannot be publicly shared at this time.

- g. Can USAID further confirm that this opportunity will NOT be funding any research?

USAID Response: There will be research activities under Breakthrough-RESEARCH. Specifically, the project will build the evidence base of SBC interventions and strategies in priority health behaviors and enabling social norms, focusing research and analysis on removal of important barriers to application of interventions at scale, including demonstrated impact, cost, and feasibility of delivery at scale, through existing and new channels.

- h. Does USAID intend to issue an RFI for these two opportunities?

USAID Response: No, we do not plan on issuing an RFI.

- i. Are any partners precluded from applying? Will organizations be eligible to bid for both?

USAID Response: Breakthrough-RESEARCH may evaluate work conducted under Breakthrough-ACTION; therefore, an organization can only bid as a prime on one of the two procurements.

30. Global Health: Prevention of Malaria and Other Mosquito-Borne Diseases Through Vector Control IDIQ --

- a. Can you please confirm whether the USAID Washington procurement entitled "Prevention of Malaria and other Mosquito-Borne Diseases Through Vector Control IDIQ with 1 task order" will include a small business set aside?

USAID Response: Based on information gained from the responses to the RFI, the "Prevention of Malaria and other Mosquito Borne Diseases Through Vector Control" IDIQ will be a full and open competition with no small business set aside. However, offerors are encouraged to sub-contract with small businesses to the extent that is practicable.

- b. Could USAID please confirm what the scope of work will be for the first task order (mentioned in the forecast) for the Prevention of Malaria and other Mosquito-Borne Diseases Through Vector Control IDIQ?

USAID Response: Section C.2 of the RFI includes a draft SOW for the first task order under the IDIQ. The purpose of that task order will be to provide Indoor Residual Spraying (IRS) and integrated malaria vector control services to the USAID/Washington Global Health Bureau and other USAID Bureaus, Missions, USAID Country Offices, and operating units as requested. The contractor will be expected to provide:

- IRS related commodities procurement and logistical services
- planning, organization, management, and implementation of IRS and integrated malaria vector control programs
- USAID Mission requested host-country environmental impact assessments and compliance and monitoring assessments (as needed)
- organization of skills training and provision of ongoing supervision
- long- and short-term technical assistance
- advisory and monitoring services to host country institutions (both governmental and non-governmental)

Please review the RFI on www.fbo.gov for more detailed information.

- c. Is the Prevention of Malaria and other Mosquito-Borne Diseases Through Vector Control IDIQ with 1 task order award forecasted for release on 12/21/2016 a new award or is there an existing IDIQ that is ending?

USAID Response: This IDIQ is a follow-on to the Indoor Residual Spraying 2 (IRS2) IDIQ which ended in 2014. This IDIQ expands the scope of the previous IDIQ in two (2) areas. First the scope is broadened to include vector control interventions beyond indoor residual spraying. Second, the scope has been broadened to include vector control for mosquito-borne diseases beyond malaria, such as the Zika virus.

- d. Could USAID please confirm that this estimated timeline is still valid?

USAID Response: USAID now anticipates that the solicitation will be released in January 2017.

- e. If so, can you please indicate if there is an incumbent organization and who this is?

USAID Response: IRS2 had three IDIQ holders; Abt Associates, Chemonics and RTI.

31. Global Health: Does USAID intend to release Round 3 of the FP/RH Methods APS (SOL-OAA-13-000024) with concept papers due February 28, 2017, as indicated in the Round 2 APS? If so, could USAID please indicate when the updated APS will be released and provide more information about the expected Specific Aims of Round 3?

USAID Response: Round 3 of the FP/RH Methods APS, referenced above is still active. The concept paper submission deadline is February 28, 2017. Please continue to monitor grants.gov for any revisions to the APS.

32. Global Health: On October 19, 2016, USAID issued a Request for Information on a planned, new multi-sectoral nutrition activity (MSNA). This new activity is not on this forecast. Does this mean the new MSNA will not be released in FY 2017 or can you provide an estimated timeframe for release and award, as well as a total estimated cost and award length? Can you clarify the anticipated award/action type?

USAID Response: This activity is not approved yet. The Solicitation will be released in FY2017.

33. Global Health: Advancing Progress in Malaria Service Delivery Project -- Not on the current Forecast --
 - a. PMI recently issued an RFI for the Advancing Progress in Malaria Service Delivery Project. Would USAID be able to share when is the expected solicitation date for this opportunity?

USAID Response: USAID expects to release a solicitation in QTR2 of FY2017.

- b. The language of the RFI seems to indicate that this project be procured as a contract. Could USAID please confirm if this is a correct statement?

USAID Response: Yes. Advancing Progress in Malaria Service Delivery Project will be a contract.

34. Global Health: Medicines, Technologies and Pharmaceutical Services (MTaPS)
 - a. Are the goal(s) and objectives of MTAps the same as what appeared in the August 2016 forecast?

USAID Response: Yes

- b. Can you provide details as to why the ceiling amount of MTAps changed to "TBD" from the "$150 – 299M" range that was presented in previous forecasts?

USAID Response: The ceiling for this program is expected to be between $150--$299M.

USAID Response: MTaPS does not have priority countries as such. MTaPS is intended to contribute to the achievement of USAID global health goals of EPCMD, AFG, and PCID in USAID partner countries.

USAID: Broader pharmaceutical systems strengthening.

e. Will MTaPS' scope include health technologies such as diagnostic devices?

USAID Response: Yes

f. What are the anticipated key sources of funding for MTaPS (e.g., PEPFAR, PMI, MCH, etc.)?

USAID: TBD. It is anticipated that funding will potentially be provided in several health Program Areas: HIV/AIDS, Malaria, TB, Global Health Security, Other Public Health Threats (e.g., neglected tropical diseases), MNCH, Family Planning and Reproductive Health, and Nutrition.

g. Is there a specific area for medical related services so we can prepare our teams to address. Are there specific medical facilities and or targets we should be prepared to respond for?

USAID Response: The Monitoring and Evaluation Services award will provide implementing partners with technical assistance to support their internal performance management efforts. Further details will be determined as the scope of work is completed.

36. M/CIO: Last year a USAID/OCIO representative spoke at one of the outreach events and said there were opportunities available for small businesses. I have not seen any of the OCIO office opportunities in any of the Forecasts and wonder where they are published?

USAID Response: The large majority of M/CIO's procurements are done as small business set-aside awards. We work with OSDBU throughout the year to plan acquisitions accordingly and only in rare instances do we process unrestricted awards. The office continues to address advanced planning as an issue but it is often difficult to get the majority of our smaller procurements (e.g., hardware/device orders, license subscriptions) into the Forecast Report in time given both the volume and urgency of those requirements. The office utilizes a separate tracker sheet to track our highest priority procurements. We will work to get those entered into the Forecast Report.

37. M/CIO: Is it possible to include the OCIO business opportunities in the USAID Forecast you manage? If you can do this, may I ask how soon they would appear? The more time available to review and plan allows us more time to solidify our teams and our approach to the RFPs.

USAID Response: This will be addressed with M/CIO senior leadership. We will request that the forecast data for our high priority procurements be entered as soon as possible.

38. Middle East: Is USAID still considering the MENA Supporting Sustainable Transition Initiatives IDIQ for possible release as reported in past forecasts?

USAID Response: No, there is no effort under consideration for MENA from the ME bureau. This should be removed from the forecast.

39. Middle East: Recently, USAID awarded the ACR-Asia contract which was widely considered follow-on to Eddata II DEP-AME. Does this mean that USAID intends to procure a similar Middle East mechanism?

USAID Response: A similar award will not be made by the Middle East bureau.

40. PPL: Regarding the “Annual Program Statement for Monitoring Evaluation and Learning,” monitoring and evaluation usually describes “services to be acquired and related agency needs and requirements” since it consists of assisting USAID to improve its own work. We therefore respectfully request that USAID reconsider the choice of instrument in favor of acquisition.

USAID Response: The Forecast was not titled correctly. This action is a staffing contract for PPL, not an annual program statement. The Forecast has been updated to properly reflect the information that is currently known.

- a. Does USAID foresee any additional procurements to appear on the forecast before FY17 Qtr. 4 that will include either the follow-on or new iterations of the above mentioned projects?

Can USAID provide confirm that the stated release date is accurate?

USAID Response: No, the release date is not accurate and the new date is on or about February 1, 2017. The AA Plan has been updated accordingly to reflect this information.

- c. Since the dollar value for this is below $25m and the scope is largely focused on girls education/empowerment would you consider procuring it as a total small business set aside?

USAID Response: USAID/Mali will consider all possible procurement vehicles including the Small Business set aside option.

- 131. Mexico: The April 29, 2016 forecast listed the Mexico M&E Platform opportunity as an upcoming procurement, however in the Q&A for the July 15, 2016 forecast, question 121, USAID clarified that “The procurement has been cancelled until further notice.” We note that this opportunity is still not listed on the November 18, 2016 forecast. Can USAID confirm if the Mexico M&E platform is anticipated to be issued and if so, when?

USAID Response: USAID/Mexico is still reviewing its M&E requirements and has not just come to a decision as to whether a platform is necessary or whether procurements will be done on an as needed basis.

- 132. Moldova: The latest forecast states that the Moldova Structural Reform RFP will be released on 11/30/2016, a date that has since passed. Could USAID/Moldova please provide an updated date for RFP release?

USAID Response: Expect it to be released in 2nd quarter.

138. Mozambique: There is a task order ($500,000-1 million) in Mozambique for local capacity development to address the 3 main areas of strengthening in each identified NGO, but it is not clear if the NGOs to be strengthened have already been identified, if these are international or local/community NGOs and what the 3 areas are. It would be great to know what USAID feels are the 3 main areas needing to be strengthened, because even if we are not eligible to apply, it could help us think about our own capacity gaps and how we can strengthen them. Can USAID please confirm under which IDIQ the Mozambique LCD-Local Capacity Development opportunity is expected to be released?

USAID Response: The partners that we are currently strengthening are our local implementing partners - Mozambican organizations. The two holders of this IQC are also Mozambican organizations.

139. Mozambique: The Mozambique FTF Value Chain Activity appeared on the forecast as a cooperative agreement, was then listed TBD, then eventually was released by an RFP. The Mission anticipates being able to provide greater clarity in the next business forecast.*” Would USAID kindly provide implementing partners with an explanation of what happened in the Mozambique case and how it can be avoided in the future?

USAID Response: The Agency strives to provide the most accurate information on the Forecast. However, because activities are often early in the planning phase details are subject to change throughout the year. Because of circumstances like this, the Agency has pushed staff to list activities as TBD unless there is a clearer picture of the selection of instrument. Moving forward, an advance of the live-feed of the Business Forecast is that as updates are made, partners will not need to wait for the next quarter. Updates on activities will happen on a more regular basis.

140. Mozambique: The Southern Africa Energy Project (SAEP) mentioned Mozambique anticipating release of a power sector project and previous business forecasts concurred. This latest business forecast makes no mention of Mozambique. Can USAID give an update on the status of this procurement?

Could USAID confirm if the Mission is still planning to issue a solicitation for this program, and if so by which mechanism?

145. Nepal: The Nepal Counter Trafficking in Persons proposal’s expected solicitation date has been pushed from October 15, 2016 on the previous forecast to January 1, 2017 on the current, yet the anticipated award date has remained the same March 15, 2017. including the Resilience and Economic Growth in the Sahel – Enhanced Resilience (REGIS-ER) and the Resilience and Economic Growth in the Sahel – Accelerated Growth (REGIS-AG) activities.

USAID/Senegal’s Sahel Regional Office expects to make 3-5 awards with USAID contributions ranging from $500,000 to $2,000,000. South Africa: Would the implementer for the South Africa Monitoring, Evaluation, Learning and Knowledge Management for Southern Africa project, the South Africa Monitoring, Evaluation, Research and Learning (MERL), or the Support for Monitoring and Evaluation for Health project be precluded from bidding on and implementing any USAID projects in Southern Africa?

USAID Response: The solicitation(s) for these programs will include the relevant conflict of interest clauses.

188. South Africa: Will the South Africa Regional Transboundary Waters Project be the merged follow-on for SAREP and RESILIM, or will there also be individual follow-on procurements for those bids?

USAID Response: USAID is planning to continue its support through a new “Resilient Waters” activity that is currently under design.

189. South Sudan: The latest Mission Forecast does not include any opportunities for South Sudan. Does this mean that the Mission is not planning to release a tender for the Core Institutional Structures Project (CORE) III opportunity in FY17?

USAID Response: Given that USAID/South Sudan terminated CORE II for convenience and based on the ongoing security concerns, at this time the Mission does not plan to release tender for the tender for the CORE III opportunity in FY17.

190. Sri Lanka: The latest Mission forecast features several upcoming USAID/Sri Lanka programs in the Democracy & Governance sector. Does USAID/Sri Lanka intend to procure assistance in the Economic Growth and Trade sector?

This may include a focus on the roles and functions of civil society, internal governance and accountability, and advocacy and networking skills.

193. Tanzania: Is the Social Marketing Award expected to be a Cooperative Agreement, an 8(a) set-aside, or both? Can USAID confirm the 12/16 release date?

USAID Response: The Social Marketing Award has been re-titled Tanzania Social Enterprise Support Activity (TSESA), which will be a Cooperative Agreement and is expected to be 8(a) sole source with a late January release date. The forecast has been updated, accordingly.

194. Tanzania: USAID has previously forecasted the Future Entrepreneurs and Leaders (FUEL) award in Tanzania to be a stand-alone contract (formerly Youth Entrepreneur Program).

- d. In response to a question on FUEL's precursor, YEP, in the USAID FY16Q1 Business Forecast Q&A, USAID indicated that "the focus of this activity is roughly 80-90% agriculture". Given its "focus on youth in rural areas," to what extent will FUEL include agriculture-related activities and objectives?

USAID Response: This activity will principally be supported by USAID Tanzania Feed the Future (FTF) Initiative which is focused in increasing Agriculture productivity and incomes of women and youth in rural areas. However the scope of this activity will integrate across sectoral approach to youth entrepreneurship and leadership and fill a different yet critical gap in engaging rural youth that have potential to start and expand SMEs. FTF interventions contributes to the CDCS Intermediate Results 2.2 Agriculture productivity and profitability increased in rice, maize and horticultural value chains.

201. Tunisia: Can you please provide more information about the scopes of the Tunisia Accountable Governance and Tunisia Community Resilience awards?

USAID Response: For the Accountable Governance activity: Accountable governance, decentralization, and regional integration are long term GoT endeavors that requires complex administrative restructuring. The GoT articulates two separate tracks towards accomplishing these goals, one of bottom up local development and one of centrally-managed de-concentration. This activity will assist on both tracks, working to ensure that convergence takes place in a way that rapidly demonstrates positive change while establishing a proper trajectory for sustainable decentralization.

It will support communities in creating alternative pathways for youth through activities that emerge from the community led workshops, intentionally engaging youth within their communities to promote positive outcomes.

This co-creation event is meant to identify key bottlenecks and opportunities for private sector, government, civil society and donors in engaging the agricultural and food security sectors. The event will likely be used to produce the next generation of USAID's agricultural and food security activities under the US Government's Global Food Security Act.

206. Uganda: Regarding Uganda Power Africa, USAID distributed a fair opportunity notice under the Clean Energy Non-CPC IDIQ for the Power Africa Uganda program, which stated USAID intends to solicit it under the Clean Energy IDIQ.
