You are cordially invited to join the:
USAID Vietnam Research Community Workshop
Tuesday, August 8th 2017, 9:00 AM to 12:30 PM
American Center
Rose Garden Tower
170 Ngọc Khánh, Giảng Võ, Ba Đình, Hà Nội, Vietnam

The United States proudly supports scientific research with partner institutions in Vietnam to support sustainable development and inform future policy decisions. The USAID Vietnam Research Community Workshop is a convening of researchers, innovators, and policy makers focused on using cutting edge science to improve human health and address environmental challenges.

The workshop will include participants from USAID programs: Partnerships for Enhanced Engagement in Research (PEER), Research and Innovation (RI) and ASEAN fellows as well as representatives from various ministries and NGOs who translate research evidence to policy. Through keynotes, poster sessions, and panels, the USAID's Research Community Workshop aims to:

- 1) Highlight opportunities to participate in Vietnam's research initiatives
- 2) showcase the results of ongoing and completed research efforts
- 3) expand the research community network and
- 4) strengthen the role of scientific evidence in the design and implementation of public policy.
