II. STATEMENT OF DUTIES

1. Basic Function of the Position

The Development Outreach and Communications (DOC) Specialist, together with the USAID Media Specialist, oversee all USAID/Kyrgyz Republic communications and outreach efforts to increase awareness of USAID assistance programs among target audiences in the Kyrgyz Republic and the United States. S/he reports directly to the Supervisory Program Officer and works closely with Mission and Embassy leadership and staff, as well as USAID implementing partners. The DOC liaises with the U.S. Embassy's Public Affairs Section (PAS) to ensure consistency in messaging and strong coordination to further U.S. Government (USG) goals in the Kyrgyz Republic. In addition, s/he coordinates closely with outreach staff in USAID's Asia Bureau and the Bureau for Legislative and Public Affairs (LPA), both located in Washington, D.C. The range of responsibilities and functions are outlined below.

Major Duties and Responsibilities

Strategic Leadership and Coordination

- Provide training to USAID/KR technical staff and implementing partners to develop their ability to support the implementation of the Mission's outreach strategy. This includes training on branding and marking, public speaking, photography, drafting of press releases and talking points, etc.
- Work in close collaboration with the Mission's Media Specialist to ensure that the Mission-produced media content, including its website and social media presence, achieve their communication objectives. This includes analyses of social media posting approaches, as well as boosting, and their effectiveness.
- Review all outreach materials (published reports, banners, posters, signs, TV and radio spots, etc.) produced by USAID and its implementing partners to ensure compliance with award provisions and Agency policy.
- Ensure the integration of outreach and communications requirements and best practices into project designs and implementation processes, including through the review of statements of work, proposals, work plans, and branding and marking plans.
- Provide strategic leadership in developing USAID's outreach strategy. Coordinate with USAID Mission management and staff to establish strategic press outreach priorities and opportunities.
- Independently plan and carry out portions of the outreach strategy not otherwise implemented through the work of technical office staff or implementing partners.
- Prepare annual budget summaries of required resources and track related expenditures.
- Guide the Mission's professional staff in their fulfillment of portions of the outreach strategy relevant to their work.
- Serve as an expert on USAID branding and style guidelines, ensuring regulations are followed and applied as outlined in ADS 320 and the Agency's Graphic Standards Manual; seek guidance from LPA on any disputes or waiver requests related to branding and marking requirements.
- Monitor effectiveness of the outreach strategy, including through planning, procuring, and managing public polling services; and analyzing public opinion polling data. Provide feedback to inform ongoing activities, future programming, and annual updates to the outreach strategy.
- Coordinate information dissemination within the USAID Mission and the broader Embassy, including with management, technical staff, implementing partners, and others. Work closely with the U.S. Embassy Public Affairs Section to inform the public of noteworthy U.S. foreign assistance efforts in the Kyrgyz Republic.
- Respond, or coordinate responses, to external information requests and data calls about USAID programming.

Preparation and Dissemination of Public Information and Publicity Materials 50%

- Oversee the drafting, editing, and dissemination of timely and accurate information, including fact sheets, program summaries and results, calendars, photos, press releases, newsletters, brochures, presentations, and all other public information materials relating to USAID's activities. These must be written in clear and concise English, and suitable for both the general public and the multilingual media.

- Edit USAID reports and documents, focusing them to the needs of the audience and bringing them to a level suitable for high-quality reproduction or paid publication and promotion.
- Travel to USAID activity sites throughout the Kyrgyz Republic and capture meaningful stories, photographs, and videos that demonstrate development impact, for publication both locally and in the U.S. Additionally, plan, procure, and manage contracted services to capture additional written and audio-visual content as needed.
- Plan, procure, and manage contracted services such as media campaigns and media bus tours to enhance the understanding and encourage the uptake of outreach content by media outlets.
- Provide text content for the Mission's growing social media efforts, including Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and YouTube, and the Mission's website efforts – including content management, editing, clearance of materials through USAID/Washington, updates, posting, and answering queries on a regular and timely basis.
- Prepare and maintain the currency of standard information packages on the USAID program in Kyrgyzstan for briefings and for distribution to the public and the media.
- Oversee the writing, editing, and distribution of press releases through close coordination with our PAS colleagues. Coordinate interviews, media tours, and press queries with members of the media, PAS, and LPA as appropriate/requested.
- Compile, edit, and disseminate the Mission's Weekly Report to key Washington stakeholders.
- Identify and oversee procurement or development of outreach gifts (wrist bands, t-shirts, pens, notepads, key chains, thumb drives, etc.).
- Develop informational materials, including the monthly newsletter, to further the understanding of USAID programming, priorities, and impact among key stakeholders.
- Respond to inquiries from the general public, media, and other sources about USAID programs and projects.

Oversight for Public Events and Media Opportunities

30%

- Draft, edit, or otherwise coordinate the production of background documents and content for media events, including press releases, speeches, talking points, briefing documents, scene setters, etc.
- Oversee the maintenance of a calendar of upcoming USAID outreach events, and its weekly distribution to the broader USAID Mission, PAS, the Embassy Front Office, and other internal consumers.
- Maintain a diverse list of potential site visit locations appropriate for a variety of visitors to the Kyrgyz Republic, coordinating closely with partners in advance.
- Coordinate site visits by external staff and VIPs, serving as control officer as necessary. Coordinate with the Embassy on schedules and logistics and attend countdown meetings as requested. Lead the preparation of briefing materials, scene setters, and other informational products and processes to support these visits.

- Plan and oversee implementation of media campaigns to disseminate information about USAID programs to local, regional, and international audiences. These may include the selective use of radio, television, newspapers, magazines, public service announcements, advertisements, billboards, public events, and media tours.
- Collaborate with PAS to expand opportunities to keep media abreast of USAID programs. This may include arranging interviews, press briefings, media tours of USAID projects, etc.
- Organize and coordinate site visits, press events, and other public functions, including conferences, openings, ribbon-cuttings, and other ceremonies. As needed, provide background briefings for media; compile and distribute press packets; organize protocol, site selection, staging, and logistics; identify and schedule speakers; liaise with U.S. and local government officials; and, provide on-site coordination of media.
- Serve as an interlocutor between high level Kyrgyz Republic government officials (up to the Minister level), U.S. Government (USG) officials (regularly involving the Ambassador, Deputy Chief of Mission, and USAID Mission Director), and the media. These events necessitate a nuanced understanding of diplomatic engagement and the USGs role in the region.
